

2020-21 Les Hall Young Conservationist Award Scoring Matrix

| Criteria | | | | | |
|--|--|---|---|--|--|
| Award Descriptor | Leadership | Innovation | Environmental Impact | Social Impact and Reach | Vision |
| This award is given to an individual or team who have developed novel techniques, engaged and inspired the community, and achieved significant on-ground outcomes for wildlife conservation on the Sunshine Coast. | The project is driven by the young person/people. | The project demonstrates new approaches to the species/habitat/environmental issue. | The project environmental outcomes are: strong, pro-active, on-ground. | Young person/people have created and/or maintained strong partnerships to achieve their project goal (stakeholders). | The project has clear objectives. |
| | Young person/people have ownership of the concept. | The project involves novel techniques or improvements to existing conservation actions. | These actions are directly linked to positive conservation outcomes. | The project has inspired/engaged/educated other people in the community. | The young person/people demonstrate a positive, solutions-based approach to their project focus. |
| | Young person/people are directly involved in the implementation. | The person/young people have used creativity or creative thinking in their approach. | The nominees demonstrate a strong understanding of their species/habitat/environmental issue. | The outcomes have been communicated to stakeholders/peers/local community. | The young person/people demonstrate a strong passion for their goal. |
| | Young person/people's voice/s are central to the nomination. | | Potential negative environmental impacts have been considered. | | The nominee has considered future direction/s for their project. |
| | The project will demonstrate great leadership and foresight. | | | | |