

Coolum Beach Public Art Trail

The seaside town of Coolum reflects the community's creative heart through many public artworks along David Low Way and the Coolum Boardwalk to Point Perry.

Starting at Lions Park opposite the Coolum Beach Hotel on David Low Way, it's approximately a 3km round trip to the artwork at the top of the scenic lookout

There are plenty of wonderful cafés to sit and enjoy a refreshing drink or meal while enjoying the artwork and coastal strip on your way up to or back from Point Perry.

There are 11 featured works which reflect a diversity of artists from community initiated projects to artworks by internationally renowned artists.

To find out more about each work, download the free council app on your smart device, look for the 'THINGS TO DO' button and open the 'VIRTUAL GALLERY'.

Enjoy the trail and share your experience on social media with #scpublicart
